Hands-on Workshops

B Beginner/Novice   I Intermediate   A Advanced

Tuesday A.M. 10:15-12:15

WS01-TA- Be a Super Teacher with iMovie
Presenter: Ashleigh Salvo, New Market School
Learning to create iMovie trailers and movies is a super power you can't live without! Together, we will work through the basics of iMovie and learn different ways that you can use it in your classroom. Bring your iPad to play along!
Target Audience: All
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 114

WS02-TA-Marvel at the Power of Canvas in the Elementary Classroom!
Presenter: Diane Marsh, Third Grade teacher, Mt. Carmel Elementary School
We will explore specific ways to successfully implement Canvas in your elemen~~~~. After looking at specific ways I have used it with my third graders, we will explore concrete ways~~~~s in your classroom this coming year. Possibilities include screencasts, quizzes, discussion threads, and much, much more!
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room:147

This Workshop is Full!

WS03-TA-Canvas LMS: Now it Stands for Learn More Stuff
Presenter: Cameron Case, Hazel Green High
While an LMS will allow the teacher to manage the digital classroom, why not also use it to expand the classroom? Time, duration, pace, content, it is all within your control when you know what you want and what your students need. Learn how to use Canvas to manage less and educate more.
Target Audience: Teachers, Special Educators, Technology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 151

WS04-TA-STEM Apps and Resources
Presenter(s): Samantha Maynor/Courtney Hamilton, Riverton Elementary
This session would explore various STEM apps and resources that would he~~~~ STEM classroom. The apps and resources apply to the new Science standards that will go into e~~~~5.
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers, Administrators, Library Media Specialists, Special Educator~~~~chnology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 202

This Workshop is Full!

WS05-TA- Transform your Teaching with SAMR
Presenter: Jornea Erwin, Alabama Technology in Motion, A & M University
Super Teachers get ready to add power to student tasks/activities-addressing DOK levels embedded in the College and Career Ready Standards by using the SAMR model.
Target Audience: All Teachers, Technology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 212

WS06-TA- Super Google: Apps, Classroom, & Certification
Presenters: Michelle White and Tina McKenzie, Monrovia Elementary

This Workshop is Full!

Have you ever thought about becoming Google Certified? This session will presen~~~~ of the Google Certification processs. We will also discuss the Google Apps & Extensions we use in ou~~~~ and the benefits of using Google Classroom.
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers and any teacher interested in becoming Google Certified
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 217

WS07-TA-Maximizing Canvas in the Elementary Classroom
Presenter: Janet Parks, 3rd Grade Teacher, Napierville, Illinois

Are you ready to take your instruction to a whole new level? Canvas is a powerful tool that can be used to take students to a whole new level of innovative learning! We will explore how Canvas can best be utilized in the elementary classroom to maximize instruction and student engagement. Participants will glean ideas of how to gain a vision for their courses from social media apps, how to create buy in for teachers, parents, and students at the elementary level, and create visually stimulating pages and modules. Participants will discover the power of the discussion features on Canvas and explore a multitude of ways that Canvas can be used. Successful elementary implementation examples of student centered learning will be shared. Participants will have the opportunity to launch their Canvas course and create visually appealing pages, modules, discussions, and quizzes.
Target Audience: K-3 Teachers

Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: Library

Tuesday P.M. - 1:15-3:15

WS08-TP- I Teach Math! What's Your Super Power?
Presenters: Wendie Hammond and Amber Osborn, Meridianville Middle
This session offers demonstration and hands-on experience of the different ways to use Canvas in the Math classroom. Topics to be covered include: importing videos, creating discussions, importing tests from textbook/Examview, and accommodating tests. Join us to experience the ways Canvas can help you on a daily basis!
Target Audience: 6-8, 9-12 Teachers, Administarators, Special Educators
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 123

WS09-TP- Using Canvas in the Language Arts Classroom
Presenter: Ashleigh Salvo, New Market School
Are you unsure how to use Canvas in your classroom? Are you a Language Arts teacher? If you answered yes to the two questions above, then this session is for you! We will talk about ways to incorporate Canvas into your Language Arts classroom and how Canvas can make your life so much easier! Bring your device as we become "super" Language Arts teachers together!
Target Audience All Teachers, Special Educators, Technology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 147

WS10-TP-Powered up!
Presenter: Wes Ikard, Hazel Green High
In this workshop, you will be shown a sequenced cooperative learning strategy that has three segments tht engage student learning. It uses CNN Student News, Weebly, AVL, and Encyclopedia Resources, and assessment from Khan Academy, Socrative, or Canvas.
Target Audience: All Teachers, Special Educators, etc.
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 151

WS11-TP-Transforming Reading Instruction with Technology
Presenter: Monica Cosby, Harvest Elementary
Everyone has a reading lesson inside of them waiting to be transformed. Why not t~~ ~~ technology? Digital learning gives teachers access to instructional tools for literacy educatio~~n.~~ participants will learn how to utilize multiple resources beyond basal readaers and worksheets.
Target Audience: All Teachers, Special Educators, etc.
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 202

This Workshop is Full!

WS13-TP-What's my SUPER POWER? Integrating Technology with Maker Spaces
Presenter: Allison Harwell, Legacy Elementary
This session is the antidote to KRYPTONITE that every teacher needs to become su~~ ~~ "Maker Spaces" in their classroom. Join me in thes hands-on workshop to learn how to start "M~~ ~~ a budget while integrating technology to create active studenet engagement!
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 217

This Workshop is Full!

WS14-TP-Maximizing Canvas in the Elementary Classroom
Presenter: Janet Parks, 3rd Grade Teacher, Napierville, Illinois
Are you ready to take your instruction to a whole new level? Canvas is a powerful tool that can be used to take students to a whole new level of innovative learning! We will explore how Canvas can best be utilized in the elementary classroom to maximize instruction and student engagement. Participants will glean ideas of how to gain a vision for their courses from social media apps, how to create buy-in for teachers, parents, and students at the elementary level, and create visually stimulating pages and modules. Participants will discover the power of the discussion features on Canvas and explore a multitude of ways that Canvas can be used. Successful elementary implementation examples of student centered learning will be shared. Participants will have the opportunity to launch their Canvas course and create visually appealing pages, modules, discussions, and quizzes.
Target Audience: K-3 Teachers
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: Library

Wednesday A.M.-10:15-12:15

WS15-WA-You'll Be a Hero with Maker Spaces
Presenter: Carla Brown, Riverton Elementary
Are you trying to differentiate or "STEM" into new directions for your classroom? Come soar with me to new horizons with Maker Spaces. You can always start small. I will give you ideas, resources, and time to help get you started. Trust me, you will be their hero.
Target Audience: Teachers, Library Media Specialists, Special Educators
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 114

WS16-WA Unleashing the Power of Canvas for K-5 Teachers
Presenters: Melissa Mann and Mary Lee, Moores Mill Intermediate School
Need a refresher on Canvas Basics (setting up a home page, creating modules) or not sure how to get started using it with your students? This workshop will focus on reviewing Canvas basics and learning ways to integrate Canvas in the K-5 Classroom.
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers, Special Educators
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 147

WS17-WA- All I Need is my CANVAS
Presenter: Ashley Wise, Monrovia Middle
This workshop will show you how to set up and use the basic tools provided by Canvas to streamline your teaching and engage students in your classroom.
Target Audience: All Teachers and Special Educators
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 151

WS18-WA- Super Websites for Students in the Classroom
Presenter: Kristy Hill, Madison County High
Teachers will learn about user-friendly websites for student class activities. This class is recommended for students who can read and are comfortable with computers. Topics to be covered include a visual way to organize your URLs, comic strips, movie posters, trading cards, brochures, flyers, reiew games, and basic coding.
Target Audience: 6-8, 9-12 Teachers, Library Media specialists, Special educators, Technology Coordinators, etc.
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 202

WS19-WA- I Know What They Know about Formative Assessment!
Presenter: Jornea Erwin, Alabama Technology in Motion, Alabama A & M
It's not formative assessment unless you use it! We will explore a toolkit of formative assessment tools you can embed in lessons for you and the students to know where they are in their learning and how to plan for next steps.
Target Audience: All
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 212

WS20-WA- Your Ultimate Super Power: Let Google Drive your Classroom
Presenter: Davina Mann, Owens Cross Roads Elementary
Google Drive is your online, anytime, anywhere productivity suite that not o~~~~~ organized, but allows students to create, collaborate, complete, and submit work electronically t~~~~~~~~s from anywhere, whether you are wearing your super hero cape or even your super hero pajam~~~
Target Audience: All Teachers, Administrators, Library Media Specialists, and Special Educators
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: 217

This Workshop is Full!

WS21- WA- Maximizing Canvas in the Elementary Classroom
Presenter: Janet Parks, 3rd Grade Teacher, Napierville, Illinois
Are you ready to take your instruction to a whole new level? Canvas is a powerful tool that can be used to take students to a whole new level of innovative learning! We will explore how Canvas can best be utilized in the elementary classroom to maximize instruction and student engagement. Participants will glean ideas of how to gain a vision for their courses from social media apps, how to create buy-in for teachers, parents, and students at the elementary level, and create visually stimulating pages and modules. Participants will discover the power of the discussion features on Canvas and explore a multitude of ways that Canvas can be used. Successful elementary implementation examples of student centered learning will be shared. Participants will have the opportunity to launch their Canvas course and create visually appealing pages, modules, discussions, and quizzes.
Target Audience: K-3 Teachers
Time: 10:15-12:15
Room: Library

Wednesday P.M. 1:15-3:15

WS22-WP- Using Google Maps and Earth in the Classroom
Presenter: Cyndee Jenkins, Madison Cross Roads
Using the free features in Google Maps and Earth will open up a world of real world experiences. Allow students to see the wonderful places in the world, visit museums, or compare geography. Make learning fun with tools we already have!
Target Audience All Teachers, Special Educators, Technology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 114

WS23-WP-Be an Elementary Canvas Wonder Woman (or Superman)
Presenter: Laura Prozan, New Hope Elementary
In this workshop, you will be given an elementary canvas Page template ready for you to customize and work on together to build a SuperPage in Canvas!
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 147

WS24-WP-Customizing your Canvas Front Page
Presenter: Tina McKenzie, Endeavor Elementary
In this workshop, will show elementary teachers how to easily make Canvas SUPER cute..
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 151

WS25-WP-Up and Away with Hot iPad Apps
Presenter: Benita Moyers, Mt. Carmel Elementary
Come along with me and learn about a variety of new and engaging apps for your classroom. These will include everything from teacher productivity and QR Codes to programming, and much more.
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 202

WS26-WP- Super Seesaw! Creating Parent, Teacher, and Student Collaboration
Presenter: Diane Trout, Julian Newman Elementary
Seesaw is an online journaling app that allows to students to collaborate with peers, globally, and share work with parents. Seesaw captures physical and digital learning while encouraging reflection through learning. Seesaw is an excellent tool to document growth and is easy for any teacher to use!
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers, Technology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 212

WS27-WP- With Nearpod's Power Comes Great Performance
Presenter: Davina Mann, Owen's Crossroads Elementary
This workshop will demonstrate an interactive, teacher-guided presentation tool with engaging features such as embedded links, graphics, video, and assessments that drive student learning. Teachers control what students see but students complete assessments in real time with results viewable to just the teacher or the entire class. Teachers can even print cumulative reports! Now that's power!
Target Audience: K-5 Teachers, Technology Coordinators, Specialists, Coaches, etc.
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: 217

WS28-WP- Maximizing Canvas in the Elementary Classroom
Presenter: Janet Parks, 3rd Grade Teacher, Napierville, Illinois
Are you ready to take your instruction to a whole new level? Canvas is a powerful tool that can be used to take students to a whole new level of innovative learning! We will explore how Canvas can best be utilized in the elementary classroom to maximize instruction and student engagement. Participants will glean ideas of how to gain a vision for their courses from social media apps, how to create buy-in for teachers, parents, and students at the elementary level, and create visually stimulating pages and modules. Participants will discover the power of the discussion features on Canvas and explore a multitude of ways that Canvas can be used. Successful elementary implementation examples of student centered learning will be shared. Participants will have the opportunity to launch their Canvas course and create visually appealing pages, modules, discussions, and quizzes.
Target Audience: K-3 Teachers
Time: 1:15-3:15
Room: Library